UNIT L2.4 What kind of world did Jesus want?

My Key Learning

What do I already know?

The Gospels are the first 4 books of the New Testament in the Bible. Gospels are stories of "Good News" that Jesus brought. The books are called Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

Jesus was a friend to the friendless.

Forgiveness:

Jesus taught people that God will forgive them. Jesus reminded people to forgive others.

Peace:

Jesus taught people that God promises peace to people who believe in him.

Fishers of People:

Jesus called the Disciples "fishers of men". The Disciples followed Jesus to share Jesus' messages. He wanted people to know about God and be able to follow God's word in the way that they treat each other and in what they believe.

The First Disciples:

Peter and Andrew were fishermen before they became Disciples.

Jesus and the leper

Jesus's behaviour towards the leper showed that people need to be compassionate and loving towards others.

The Good Samaritan

Jesus told the story of the Good Samaritan to remind people that we should take care of each other no matter what our beliefs or background.

People who were rejected by others were accepted by Jesus.

Jesus wants people who are outcasts to be accepted by everyone.

How the world shows a world that Jesus wanted

There are modern day examples of how Jesus wanted the world to be.

Other faiths

Examples of being a good neighbour are not just in Christianity but can be found in people of all faiths and for people without a faith.

Sawm: One of the five Pillars of Islam is the period of fasting during the daylight hours of Ramadan. This helps Muslims appreciate how poor people suffer.
