UNIT U2.1 What does it mean if Christians believe God is holy and loving? My Key Learning

What do I already know?

Christians believe in God as “three in one” – The Trinity: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

A prophet can see into the future. Muhammad was a prophet in the Muslim faith.

The Bible describes God:

Psalms are songs, prayers and poems written by King David. (Psalm 103)

Isaiah was a prophet who wrote about his experience of God. (Isaiah 6:1-5)

John was a follower of Jesus who wrote a letter about God. (1 John 4:7-13)

Songs have been written throughout time to demonstrate God's holiness and love.

Christians believe that God is holy and loving.

Cathedrals:

Medieval Christians built cathedrals “to the glory of God”.

Manchester Cathedral

Guidelines for those who do not believe in God:

Humanists do not believe in God but they believe in taking care of each other.

There are strict rules and laws in place for all in the UK.
